ANNOUNCEMENTS

THEDA BARA TO BE SEEN IN CARMEN IN NORWICH.

William Fox Colossal Screen Production at the Davis Theatre Today and Tomorrow-Also Three Big Keith again next year. Acts of Vaudeville.

The announcement will be of great interest to local theatre goers that they are to have the opportunity of wit-nessing the William Fox colossal screen production of Carmen with the screen in the role of the gypsy flirt at the Davis theatre today and tomorrow. The William Fox produc-tion stands single supreme, inim-itable, and alone among achievements morrow. of the silent stage. This adaption of Prosper Merimee's novel has little in common with familiar conventional operatic and dramatic versions. It operatic and dramatic versions. It borrows nothing from custom or tradition in conception or execution. The services of a total of more than 5,000 brother, John Campbell, and her bersons were enlisted in its producpersons were enlisted in its produc-tion. Entire Spanish cities with their castles, palaces, cathedrals, plazas, lakes, mountains and gorges are shown as are festas, the bull ring, tribes of real Andalusian gypsies, coast guards, smugglers, pensants flower girls, oragne sellers grandees, caravans, armies of soldiers and their barracks, prisons, cigarette factories, and the Cordova baths. In fact, the entire production has been produced on a scale just as elaborate as The Birth of a Nation.

In addition to this gigantic feature there are three vaudeville acts on the bill, and the headline attraction is Mason, Wilbur, and Jordan, three men in a nevel comedy partomine Mason, Wilbur, and Jordan, three men, in a novel comedy pantomine acrobatic offering called A Soldier's Dream. Another good act is Helne, Washburn and Geer, two men and a woman, who present a clever singing and comedy act introducing some old noon of next week time minstrelsy. The third act is Madelyn Shone and Co., a comedy singing and talking act that is different from anything ever seen or heard here. With the vaudeville and fea-ture photoplays this makes a show that cannot be seen anywhere in the country for the money.

Pathe Scenic Colored pictures and comedies complete the programme, Matines at 2.15. Evening at 6.45 and 8.45. Tomorrow, New Year's day, there wil be four complete shows, at 1.30, 2.15, 6.45, and 8.45.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Marguerite Clark in Unique Film Characterization as "Helene of the mony, North," Today and Saturday.

Marguerite Clark's latest screen vehicle, Helene of the North, presents this dainty star in the most unique characterization she has yet assumed since her triumphant debut in motion pictures, under the management of the Famous Players' Film Co. This latest five-part feature on the Paramount programme combines in a decidedly novel manner the cultured atmosphere street was of aristocratic society circles with the rugged environment of the trackless wastes of Northwestern Canada.

Between these far extremes the drama sways with uninterrupted fascination, and whether in the limitless wilds, or the warm, luxurious room, Mayguerite Clark is equally effective nd enchanting.

story is very original befinning a sit does in the fashionable home of an English society lady, and developing from that sheltered spot into the open spaces of the Canadian woods, where a virile melodramatic plot ensues, cuimi-nating romatically in the cozy corner where the drama began.

where the drama began.

Included in this divergent contrast of scenery is every emotion and element of drama possible to a modern romance. Fine pictorial effects have been obtained in the scenes centering about the activities of the Northwestern Mounted Police in their attempts to capture the man whom Helene fears as much as she loves the other man whom the former threatens. A splenwhom the former threatens. A splen-did cast, including Conway Tearle, who recently distinguished himself in support of William Faversham in The Hawk: Elliott Dexter, Frank Lossee, David Wall, who will be pleasantly remembered for effective work in pre-vious Famous Players' productions: vious Famous Players' productions; Ida Darling and Brigham Boyce should make the preduction a memorial one. Three excellent vaudeville acts and Universal comedy reels will also shown en today's programme

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Charlie Chaplin in "A Night at the Show," Two Reels-A Big Scream.

Charles Chaplin of the worn-out shoes and old clothes, appears today at the Colonial theatre in an entirely new role in the sensational two-reel Essanay-Chaplin comedy entitled A Night at the Show. In this play Char-tie forfs his old costume and appear ile doffs his old costume and appears in a respectable dress suit and silk hat. But even in this disguise it is impossible not to recognize the Chanlin walk, the Chaplin capers, and the Chaplin mannerisms. He is Charlie Chaplin, whether in the garb of a hobo or a man or society. This comedy proves conclusively that it is not Charlie's makeup, funny as it has been considered, that endears Charlie to the photoplay public. His success lies deeper than that; it is personality, an individuality that is always found, no matter in what attire he appears.

And Chaplin loses none of his funniness; in fact critics who have wreten. niness; in fact critics who have watch-ed him at work on his newest piece of work, "A Night at the Show," declare work. A Night at the Show," declare that he is funnier than ever, although a new Chaplin in a new role. His versatility is surprising and leads one to wonder "what next?" in his line of funny antics. He is one wild scream from start to finish of this wild-fire comedy. Can you imagine him at the theatre in an immaculate evening suit, when his enthusiasm and admiration for a classic dancer leads him over the footlight to the side of this alluring feminine? The show stops, as far as the regulation show is concerned. but a new one starts with Charlie in the spotlight. Don't miss it. The Woman's Stare, a two reel Vitagraph, and The Eternal Feminine, two reel Selig, complete the bill.

Military Hospital in England.

Cambridge, Dec. 39.—A ward in which the patients sleep on inflated rubber mattresses half submerged in tubs filled with warm water is the latest feature of the famous open air nilitary hospital located here It was found that many of the pa-tients arriving at the hospital had such terrible wounds that they were mable to bear the pain, and as the constant administration of opiates retarded their progress, it was decided by Colonel Griffiths to provide a bath ward where the bad cases could spend their entire time in the water. The water, which is kept flowing through the tub, is maintained at a temperature of 100 degrees. By a sysem of slings, the patient lies on a rubber mattress with his entire body under water, only his head showing above the level of the bath. A casual ob-server passing through the ward would never know the patients were in a tub. The head is in sight, occupying an ordinary pillow, and the figure seems to be covered by the conventional hospital blanket. However, when the flap is opened the the body is seen to be submerged in water, but lying on a rub-ber mattress, which is pronounced ab-solutely comfortable by the patients. ber mattress, which is pronounced absolutely comfortable by the patients. One patient, whose thigh had been ripped away by a shell, has been in a tub continuously for six weeks. Before the way placed in the transfer of the court.
